

AMERICAN RAILROADS SEMINAR

Inspired by the upcoming sesquicentennial of the Golden Spike Ceremony celebrating the 1869 completion of the transcontinental railroad, the Georgia Gwinnett College history discipline is sponsoring an American Railroads Seminar, March 26-28, in the Heritage Room of the Daniel J. Kaufman Library & Learning Center.

This multi-disciplinary event will feature presentations by faculty in the fields of art, chemistry, geography, history and political science. There also will be an evening presentation by the Southeastern Railway Museum of Duluth, Georgia.

Tuesday	March 26	2 – 3:15 p.m.	American Railroads: The Story of a Transportation Industry
Wednesday	March 27	12 – 1:15 p.m.	American Railroads: Politics, Law and Labor
Thursday	March 28	2 – 3:15 p.m.	American Railroads: Social and Cultural Aspects
Thursday	March 28	7 – 8:30 p.m.	American Railroads: Movies, Meals and Memories

For more information, contact Dr. Frank Smith, lecturer of history, at fsmith2@ggc.edu

Presented by

Georgia Gwinnett
COLLEGE

1000 University Center Lane
Lawrenceville, GA 30043
www.ggc.edu